the law and inviting their attention to the law and inviting their co-operation in carrying out its purpose. He has asked each board to appoint a local director who will represent his town in the work. Mr. Branche's letter reads as follows:

My dear Mr. Deming:

About one hour ago, in the columns of the press, I saw an announcement that I have been eagerly watching for since May 1, namely that you have been appainted to handle the Americanization work under the law of 1819. I hasten to offer you my heartiest congratulations and wish to extend to you every courteey within my power.

As managing secretary for the War Camp Community service in Norwjeh and New London, I feel perhaps that it may be possible for us to get together en some plan that may prove of matual benefit both to the state and communities mentioned as well. I know of no greater reconstruction -AND-
